

Specialized training courses

Department is in the process of developing a plan to conduct a number of training courses in a number of physical areas of interest to society in general.